Autumn in the Garden

When the frosty kiss of Autumn in the dark makes its mark on the flowers, and the misty morning grieves over fallen leaves;
Then my olden garden, where the golden soil
Through the toil
of a hundred years is mellow, rich, and deep,
whispers in its sleep.

Faint and far away their ancient griefs appear;
Yet how near
Is the tender voice, the careworn, kindly face,
Of the human race!
Let us walk together in the garden, dearest heart,
Not apart!
They who know the sorrows other lives have known Never walk alone.

Henry Van Dyke
