Your Questions:

Is a view on abortion solely a question of religious belief?

The right to life is not just a question of religious belief. As the first and fundamental human right, it affects people of all faiths, and none.

You do not have to be from any particular faith tradition to agree that human life should be protected and that intentionally ending the life of another human is never justified.

Supporting and sustaining a culture of life is in the interest of every citizen, Catholics and all people of goodwill because it defines us as a society.

What is the view of the Church?

The Church teaches that life is sacred from conception to natural death and there is no such thing as a life without value.

This belief is based on reason as well as faith. Our Church rejects the suggestion that any person can decide when it is time for another person to die
