The Old Wild Place – David Whyte

After the good earth where the body knows itself to be real and the mad flight where it gives itself to the world, we give ourselves to the rhythm of love leaving the breath to know its way home.
And after the first pure fall, the last letting go, and the calm breath where we go to rest, we'll return again to find it and feel again the body welcomed, the body held,
the strong arms of the world, the water, the working at dawn and the thankful, almost forgotten, curling to sleep with the dark.

The old wild place beyond all shame.

*Eternal rest grant on to them, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine on them. May they rest in peace.
May their souls and the souls of all the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace.
Amen*
