Sincere thanks to all who have volunteered to assist with our return to public Masses. It is important that we continue to be vigilant and do all that we can to protect one another against the coronavirus. Please remember that it is important to:

- Sanitise hands when entering and leaving the church
- Sit only in the seats with welcome card
- Families may sit in one seat
- Wearing a mask in church is highly recommended
- Follow the directions of the ushers

To people who may have health concerns or are unsure about returning at this time, please continue to join us on the parish webcam.

The Christian Heritage of our Diocese

To mark the feast day of St. James the diocese has commissioned five short videos to explore our own Christian heritage here in the Archdiocese of Armagh. The videos filmed at Altamuskin Mass rock, Ardboe Cross, St. Moninna's Holy Well, Monasterboice High Cross and St. James Church and Holy Well in Cooley, help us to reflect on the strong historical underpinnings of the Christian faith in the Archdiocese, to reflect on the journey of faith we each navigate and to explore how the lives we live influence the wider world around us. The videos were released on each of the five days running up to the feast of St. James on the 25th July 2020 and are available on the Diocesan Facebook page and via the following link <https://www.armaghprays.com/diocesanheritage>.
